PREFACE

The purpose of the Washington State Data Book is to present, in one reference document, a diversity of information on Washington, its people, economy, and government. The information is obtained primarily from Washington State and federal agencies and has been assembled into eleven major sections: Population, Economy, State Government Organization and Finance, Human Services, Criminal Justice, Education, Natural Resources, Environment, Energy, Transportation, and Local Government. These sections are included because they represent the type of information that is most frequently requested by a broad range of users.

It would be impossible to compile and publish the Data Book without the cooperation of the contributing agencies. Therefore, we would like to thank those agencies and their research staffs, both professional and clerical, who have supported this publication. Agency names, addresses, general information telephone numbers, and reference publications are listed at the end of this book.

Every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of the data presented in this publication. However, the Data Book is published biennially and, due to frequent updates and changes, these data should not be cited as official agency information.

Please assist us in producing improved editions by returning the user-comments form at the end of this publication.

DATA NOTE

Many data series published in this book are available annually, or more frequently, in separate publications released by contributing agencies. These source documents generally provide detailed data definitions and user information excluded from the Data Book due to lack of space.

Please contact the contributing agency to determine the availability of specific information about data presented in this publication.

[1]Prior to late 1975 motor homes were registered as passenger cars.
[2]Registrations for 1977 are exaggerated by the requirement to register some vehicles twice to institute the revolving biennial registration system.
[3]Boat trailer registrations, identified as such, ended in September 1979. They are now registered as "personal" trailers and cannot be identified as recreation vehicles.

[2]Seattle City Light serves the city of Seattle and some surrounding areas.

[3]Puget Power serves Jefferson, King, Kitsap, Kittitas, Pierce, Skagit, Thurston, and Whatcom Counties.

[4]Washington Water Power serves Adams, Lincoln, Spokane, Stevens and Whitman Counties and parts of Idaho.

[5]Pacific Power & Light serves Columbia, Garfield, Walla Walla, and Yakima Counties.

Note: Power companies do not necessarily serve entire county areas.
